SENIOR TRIAL LAWYER WITH SUBSTANTIAL EXPERIENCE WINNING COMPLEX CASES

A graduate of Williams College and the Georgetown University Law Center, Hassan was a member of the corporate international department in the New York office of Curtis, Mallet-Prevost, Colt & Mosle, a New York based law firm specializing in international transactions. While at Curtis Mallet, Hassan specialized in mergers and acquisitions, corporate finance, and bankruptcy arbitrage. In that capacity, he represented a $4.7 billion takeover target, a $65 million seller of its assets, and a $500 million asset securitization.

Hassan joined his father and the Firm in 1997 and became its managing partner in 1999 and has developed the strategic vision that powers the firm's growth. As a skilled Baltimore trial attorney and aggressive negotiator, he is directly involved in the most complex cases the firm handles. He has brought his transactional expertise to the Firm representing publicly traded corporations in complex commercial litigation and has successfully resolved hundreds of millions of dollars of cases for both plaintiffs and defendants across the country.

Hassan handles a wide variety of litigation and continually demonstrates his aptitude and skill in taking on challenging legal situations. It is these pursuits that have earned him a reputation as an excellent businessman who is the “architect of the deal,” “a visionary,” and an extremely gifted negotiator. Hassan is among a distinguished group of attorneys whose unyielding dedication to resolving complex commercial litigation is matched by an unwavering passion for the courtroom.

A trial lawyer at heart, Hassan maintains an active role in the courtroom representing Murphy, Falcon & Murphy’s wide range of clients. The man himself puts it best: “To make the point without understanding how it fits into the overall scheme of success is what 95% of the world’s lawyers do. To make the point in a way that fits into your strategy — that’s an art form.”

“Hassan’s unique combination of judgment, skill, and guts has been his hallmark since we met many years ago. He continues to be my most trusted advisor.” –Former U.S. Congressman Harold Ford, Jr.

“I’ll never forget sitting at my kitchen table, reading an article in the Washington Post about this small community that was forced to live off of bottled water,” says Hassan about one of his proudest victories—a case against Constellation Power Source Generation in 2008.

After learning of the issues with fly ash contamination that residents of Gambrills, Maryland were facing, Hassan was determined to help. With his encouragement and representation, community members filed a class action suit against the energy company that had contaminated their wells and won a $54 million settlement.
